WEATHER PROBABILITIES, November 4 1879. Middle States clear or fair weather, sterary temperature.

THE THEOLIGICAL SEMINARY .- The c.m. milter, consisting of the Rev. Prof. Nelson, Messrs. C. F. Lee, A. Herbert, and C. R. Hoff, having is charge the crection of a new chapel at the Theological Seminary, near this ity, it is said have now in bank at their disesa', $2,103, not iccluding the $1,500 pledged by the trustees; and also a considerable amount of unfaid subscriptions. With this they prorose to begin work, and it is hoped the friends this heapred institution will not suffer it to fail through wast of liberality and interest. The present place of worship—Prayer Hall—is very inconvenient, on account of the large increase of students this session, and every effort will be made to provide a more commodious house of prayer. A plan has been selected provides a fine of the students of the session of th house of prayer. A plan has been selected providing 301 sittings on the ground floor, a gallery over the vestibule, and two side galleries. The arrangement is such that the chancel will be visible from every seat. This plan is now in the hands of a skillful architect, who is making the bills of probable cost. St. George's Hall has also been thoroughly repaired. Meade fiall has also received thorough attention. The cellar has been drained so as to make the lower rooms, which were formerly so damp as to be almost uninhabitable quite as viessant and desirable as uninhabitable, quite as pleasant and desirable as any in the building. There is also a wire fence being put in front of the Seminary, which will enclose an acre of two and keep unmerciful kine from destroying the flowers that loving hands have been went to plant unler the shadows of Aspinwall. The pump is reached by a currently contrived labyrinthe entrance that will set at defiance the most intelligent cow.

SERVICES DICHINED. - Robt, Gaines, colored, a small fry republican politician of the Fourth to have on the night of Nevember 13th the ward, declined yesterday to lend his aid to secure the chetion of Mr. Jacob Heisley, the teacjuster, on the ground that the compensation offered was not sufficient, but of er s me correspondence, and a slight raise on the first effor, Robert came to terms, sold out, and is now engaged in attempting to secure votes for Mr. Heisley, tue is really doing him harm by driving men who would have voted for Mr. II. away from the poils, or causing then to vete for the debt paying candidates.

LOCK HOUSE EURNED,-The Cumberland to be on fire. The company's bont hands and the pump hands being stationed there, the fire was exploguished by them, after hurning a pertion of the reof and one window. As there was to fice in the house at the time it is believed to have been the work of an incedendiary.

GAMS PLENTIFUL -- Game of all kinds of note. Ducks and hirds of all descriptions are tanked about the streets of the city, and meet with a ready sale at good prices. Mr. W. F. Consisten succeeded a day or two aco in koling excel number of rabbits, and an old gray fox, decrayer of parnidges and tabbits.

Disorderly.—Price's alley, running from fee to Union street, has long been a tuchulent and rebellious neighborhood, and well it may be, for that and "Buzzard's Roest," in Peterwest winds, shifting to west and south, ris- burg, are on a par. All sorts of characters lowed by falling barometer, and nearly there reside—some sober, industrious people, compelled by force of circumstances to live there, but the majority are of the baser sort. Yesterday a row took place there between a man and three er four women, and for a time things were tively, until Officer John Gray made his appearance on the scene and spressed a negro man named Silas Harris for beating a cegro woman named Celia Jackson. Siles did not resist the officer, but deliberately laid down, and, like a stubborn mule that will lie down whether you want him or not, positively refused to move. Persussion was in vaic; there he laid, a large growd looking on ecjoying the fun. But Officer Gray, not to be outdene, sammoned assistance. and succeeded in capturing and carrying before Justice Livejoy Silas Harris, Celia Jackson, Sailie Timbers, and Rachael Chase. The Justice, after hearing the case, sent Harris, who, of course, was usable to pay his fice, to jail for six'y days, and the women for thirty days each, there to enjoy a good, warm fire, plenty to cat, and spend a very pleasant winter month. Justice Lovej y says he is going to do all he can to break up the disorderly conduct in the alley.
